

REVITALIZED "LEFTS" CRUSH A CAMPAIGN SOUTH OF MADRID

Strongly Attack at Two Points
While Insurgents Retaliate
With Raids

A FURIOUS BATTLE

Shock of Loyalist Onslaught Brings Emergency Call For Rebel Reinforcements

By Thomas A. Louza
(T. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

MADRID, Feb. 18.—(INS)—A revitalized Loyalist army, strongly attacking at two points southeast of Madrid, today crushed a fortnight's Rebel campaign to garrote the capital.

Insurgents retaliated with two night air raids, killing at least 11, wounding 60, and starting a score of fires. Another Loyalist attack in West Park, in northwestern Madrid, was turned back according to rebel reports.

One of the most furious and costly battles of the civil war checked the insurgent drive to cut off the Valencia highway. Over the cold plateau and through the gullies of the Jarama River wave after wave of Loyalists rolled from Arganda and Perales.

The shock of the Loyalist onslaught brought an emergency call for rebel reinforcements. They counter-attacked but the Loyalists held, following up with another assault.

"Loyalist troops attacked successfully in the Jarama River sector," said a Madrid communique today. "Our lines were considerably advanced."

"The enemy counter-attacked, but was repulsed with heavy losses after calling up reserves."

"Government troops are now consolidating their positions."

A rebel salient remains, however, perilously close to the Valencia road at Salamanca asserted that the rebels are continuing to advance.

"The nationalists repulsed an attack in the West Park," it said, "and dispersed a government offensive near Maranosa, capturing two tanks."

"The advance east of the Jarama River is continuing."

Ten planes roared over Madrid at 1 p. m. in the first raid, heavily bombing the outskirts.

The attack was only the prelude for a midnight sweep of fifteen big bombers. The Great Pacific Building was among many in the heart of Madrid that was set afire. The Belgian Embassy was damaged by a "dub."

COMMUNITY'S FAVORITE BABY WILL BE SELECTED BY POPULAR VOTE; $500 CASH TO THE WINNER

$1,000 in Awards and Commissions as "Nest Eggs"
For Future Education of Youngsters

OPEN ELECTION TODAY

Bristol and Community babies, glorified sweethearts of the commonwealth, are to be escorted along their starting paths in life by progressive business concerns in co-operation with The Bristol Courier.

A shower of cash, designed to provide the business educational foundation of success in life for a number of our proteges, is to rain down on winners of a "Favorite Baby" election sponsored by this paper and the co-operating progressive business concerns.

Community children under five years of age are eligible for nomination. All they need is a picture for publication in this newspaper so that people of the commonwealth may choose their favorite, and arrangements even for their pictures without cost have been made by The Courier.

This is to be a real election; with real advantages at stake.

One thousand dollars in cash and commissions, and a silver loving cup, bigger than many a baby, are the prizes.

The community's favorite baby will be given a cash award of $500 and the great loving cup worth its weight in a lot of things.

The favorite baby will have a cabinet comprising the people's choice from the best babies that heaven ever sent for mortal exhilaration—this community's own.

They will be presented thrift anchors, cash awards whose final purpose is to provide our citizens of tomorrow with advantages which most adults of today never had.

Baby Wears the Crown

God's gift to His Country—Baby Ream, is to enjoy an elaboration. The happiness-generators of our country are to receive the recognition which is their due.

Eighteen years, twenty years—even the ripened experience of old age will find them looking back on the gifts of their parents; the heritage granted them and their descendants when they were equipped with means to go onward even further than has been done in the past.

The election is your baby's election; your neighbor baby's election; Bristol and community's election. It has been made possible by business interests which wish to bring humanitarian principles and the Golden Rule into everyday practice.

The business concerns that have aligned themselves with this newspaper in this cause are able to do so because of the support that has been given them in the past and because of the support experience has taught them to anticipate. This is a creative enterprise in which your baby and every other baby in Bristol and community should play a part and receive a vital benefit.

The initial list of the leading firms that will give vote coupons with each purchase of 50 cents or over appears in today's paper.

Brief, Fascinating, Profitable

The election will last a period of approximately eight weeks following publication next week of the first list of babies nominated.

Babies of this community within the age limit of five years may be nominated by any relative, friend or admirer. Mothers, fathers, grandparents, aunts and uncles, brothers and sisters, all admirers of babies, may nominate the baby of their choice.

Winners will be decided by the people of the community on a vote-count.

Baby's Picture

Bring in the baby's picture with the official Entry Blank if you have one suitable for reproduction in the newspaper. If you do not have a good picture of the baby, get an order from the Favorite Baby Election editor, our official photographer, Nichols, and have one made at our expense. Election headquarters at 218 Mill Street, Bristol (next to the Phila. Elec. Co.).

Their votes for babies entered in the election may result from favoritism to any baby they know or may result from election of a favorite after seeing photographs of the entrants in this newspaper.

Babies of the co-operating merchants, their employees, employees of The Courier are not eligible to participate.

A Shower of Real Cash

The Shower of Cash will be directed by them to nourish the opportunities of the babies they choose. Anyone who wishes to campaign for any particular baby may do so and the method by which votes may be obtained are detailed in the two-page announcement in this issue.

Each baby, as soon as nominated, automatically receives a complimentary starting ballot of 1,000 votes. Vote coupons will be printed in each issue of The Courier to be clipped and cast and each coupon will count for the number of votes specified upon it. A coupon appears today.

Business houses and professional men co-operating with this newspaper will give coupons with cash purchases made in their stores.

The Courier will give votes upon payment of subscriptions.

"Young bloods" of the moment—our babies, are taking the situation in hand. They are going to knock the depression off with a smile; beam on good fortune with choruses of blissful delight and reap a harvest from love-caused adulation.

The harvest will come when they grow old enough to use what they now reap, as intended by the friends and relatives who do the sowing. Your votes for a baby now may clear for that baby a path of happiness. It may mean the difference when he or she is ready to stand alone, between mere existence and actual living.

THESE CASH AMOUNTS WILL BE GIVEN THE CHILDREN'S PARENTS WHEN THE WINNERS ARE DECIDED.

They took off from Rutbah Wells at 6 a. m., planning to skip Baghdad. Their goal, it was understood, was the little island of Bushire in the Persian Gulf—along the "Dorothy Kilgallen route" to the Far East. Bushire is 899 air miles from Rutbah Wells.

CROYDON LADS TAKEN IN CUSTODY FOR THEFTS

Three Admit Robbing Manor Theatre; Tickets Were Stolen by Trio

BUNGALOWS ENTERED

Three boys, who have been making their home in Croydon, and who with a fourth were taken into custody following theft of tickets from the Manor Theatre, Croydon, have been turned over to the Catholic Bureau in Philadelphia.

The four taken in custody by constable Joseph Seaders, several days ago, after he had been "tipped off" to the fact that boys were believed to have entered the theatre, are: William Arditt, 15; Walter Marks, 11; Louis Adzinski, 10; and James Harvey, 12.

Harvey was later exonerated of any crime in the case. The remaining three admitted their guilt to Bucks county detective Anthony Russo when questioned by him. Officers also report that the trio admit entering the Cornells house on Haunted Lane, and stealing from there pots and pans, which were cut up and sold for junk.

The trio admitted taking the hinges of a door at the Manor theatre, Croydon, and stealing boxes of tickets from the operator's booth. After chasing the group across a field, Marks was finally caught by Seaders, and then the other three taken into tow. The three were warned to keep off the streets after nine p. m., unless they are given consent of their parents.

The boys admit entering three houses on Haunted Lane. Five other houses have also been entered, but these cases have not yet been solved.

The boys, who are wards of the Catholic Bureau, Philadelphia, have been located in Bucks County only six months, and were therefore returned to the care of the bureau. The three lads were taken before the Bucks County court on Tuesday. They have been residing with a family in Croydon.

This week Frank Ball, 13, Croydon, and Raymond Chonynski, 11, also of Croydon, admitted to officers that they had entered a bungalow on Browns Lane, Croydon, owned by Howard Smith, 2935 Jasper street, Philadelphia. Entrance was gained twice the boys state. Miscellaneous items were stolen from this house; and the lads also admitted entering the Straub place on Haunted Lane. The two were questioned by Russo, and then placed in probation.

SOUTH LANGHORNE DAIRYMAN FREED; COST IS DIVIDED

Acquit John Devlin On Two Charges, Unlawful Use of Milk Bottles

TESTIMONY BY SEVERAL

Prosecutors, Two Bristol Dairy Firms, Directed to Pay Half of Costs

DOYLESTOWN, Feb. 18.—John Devlin, South Langhorne milk dealer, went on trial this week in Bucks County Court on two charges of unlawful use of milk bottles, the jury acquitting him yesterday afternoon, and directing that Devlin pay one half of the costs of the prosecution.

The two prosecutors, Benjamin Groff, of the Keystone Dairy Company, and Elwood Dyer, milk dealer, both of Bristol, were named by the jury to pay the other half of the costs.

Devlin, who has been a milk dealer for 14 years, operating a dairy on Bellevue avenue, South Langhorne, and the defendant's four employees, all testified that on no occasion did they use stray bottles and fill them with milk from the Devlin dairy.

Constable Joseph Alta, Bristol, and constable Joseph Seader, Bristol Township, testified for the Commonwealth. They stated they discovered in the defendant's milk truck, 36 bottles which belonged to the Dyer and the Keystone dairies.

Daniel McKenna, Langhorne, former employee of the defendant but now operating his own milk truck, testified for the Commonwealth that when he worked for Devlin it was his practice to use stray bottles.

Harry R. Michner, 26, of Doylestown, was acquitted yesterday by a jury on charges of driving while drunk on November 8th on the Old York Road at Furlong. The jury directed that the costs be placed on the county.

Robert Ford, colored, a Philadelphia WPA worker, pleaded guilty before Judge Hiram Keller yesterday to a charge of assault and battery alleged to have been committed on Mat Hockle. Mr. Hockle is a WPA foreman. One morning when the WPA workers came in from Philadelphia, Mr. Hockle, the foreman, discharged Mr. Ford and it was alleged that Ford punched Hockle in the eye. THE PRESIDENT'S PURPOSE

Nothing is gained in discussion of the President's recent remarkable proposal by treating it as other than it is; namely, as a method of obtaining on the Supreme Court a majority more likely to interpret the Constitution as he would like to see it interpreted.

Other questions are involved, but it is better to concentrate on the main issue. The proposal is the President's method of getting around the fact that the Constitution as now interpreted will not let Congress legislate on subjects he thinks must be brought within the modern scope of Federal legislative authority.

There were three methods open to him. He could ask Congress to propose amendments to the Constitution covering these specific subjects. He could ask for an amendment liberalizing the means provided in the Constitution for its amendment. Or he could do what he did.

The first two methods were open to several very practical objections. They are, in the first place, too slow to suit his purpose. In the second place, specific amendments might be hard to draft in a manner that would insure their adoption at all. An amendment, for example, that gave Congress power to regulate industry, agriculture and labor would be so far-reaching in its implications as to undo, in effect, the Federal scheme of Government. The people might not like it.

So the President preferred to keep the constitutional division of powers as it is, provided the Court could be made to interpret it as he wanted.

However, his method of accomplishing this is itself open to serious question. First, it is violent, in a rhetorical sense, and extra-legal. Second, there is something repulsive in the idea of appointing men to the Supreme Court merely because they may be trusted to look at the Constitution in a certain way. Third, it is risky, in that future Presidents still unknown may use this precedent, with the aid of a complaisant Congress to give the Constitution their own special interpretations.

On the whole, it seems likely Mr. Roosevelt might have won himself a more admirable place in history if he had taken the hard, rather than the easy, way out, of his Administration's constitutional troubles. A proposal from him to popularize the method of constitutional change, possibly along the lines suggested by Theodore Roosevelt, might have met with wide acclaim. Possibly it would not have enabled him fully to effectuate his legislative policies, but it could have stood as a monument to his service of democracy.

You can tell a man who has a dumb wife. He always talks like a school teacher telling the third grade.

Another test of self-control is to have your wife use her patient-mother tone of voice on you in public.

Another way to make people hate you is to tell them you don't pay any attention to little pains like theirs.

CONSIDER PROTECTION OF THE BEAVER COLONY

EDGELEY, Feb. 18.—A meeting of the Edgeley Rod & Gun Club was held Monday evening at the Headley Manor Fire Company with President Elwood Britton presiding.

The game committee reported having put out a crate of rabbits in this vicinity. The fish committee reported that the dams at both Freeland's Pond and the lower pond have been repaired. The forestry committee reported that trees planted a year ago are in good condition and growing rapidly.

It is reported that dogs are still running at large in this vicinity and killing small game. The club members are appealing to residents to keep their dogs tied.

Due to the large attendance at the last shoot one week ago, the committee is endeavoring to have bigger shoots and more prizes in the future. The trap committee is making preparations at this time to erect on the shooting grounds a 22 rifle range, which they hope will prove successful.

There was quite a discussion concerning the local beaver colony, due to the fact that the season for trapping is nearing. The majority of the club members are in favor of protecting this colony as they believe it their duty as sportsmen. A committee was appointed to contact the land owners where the beaver colonies are located to ask their co-operation in this matter.

The delegate appointed to represent the Edgeley Rod & Gun Club at the State Federation of Sportsmen's meeting held in Harrisburg last week was Lester Stackhouse, who brought back with him an interesting report.

Mr. Cole, fish warden of this district of Norristown, gave an interesting talk pertaining to fish and fishing in Pennsylvania. He pointed out to the sportsmen that more interest should be taken in fishing, due to the fact that it is possible to fish practically the entire 12 months of the year, whereas hunters are limited to various short periods. Refreshments were served.

RECIPE YOU'LL SURELY ENJOY

ate desserts should follow a heavy meal. Pies which employ fruit juices satisfy the demand for pastries without being too rich.

For a delicious Orange Pie, stir one tablespoon of cornstarch in a cup of cold water. Slowly stir in three-quarters of a cup of boiling water and cook for five minutes.

Add the grated rind of two oranges; the juice of three oranges; one cup of sugar and a pinch of salt. When this mixture is cool, beat in the yolks of two eggs and the white of one egg. Pour into a pie dish, lined with pastry, and bake 30 minutes in a moderate oven.

Cover with a meringue made of the stiffly beaten egg white, into which one tablespoon of sugar has been beaten. Lower the oven heat and slide the pie in just long enough to brown delicately. Some cooks leave the door slightly ajar when finishing the meringue.

Baked Fish Fillets

Your favorite fish fillet will be delicious prepared in a baking dish with these seasonings: One tablespoon minced onion, two tablespoons butter, one and one-half cups canned tomatoes, salt and pepper to taste, one teaspoon sugar and a few drops of Worcestershire sauce.

Sprinkle the fillets, with salt, pepper and a few drops of lemon juice and arrange in buttered baking dish. Saute onion in butter, add tomatoes and other seasonings and boil five minutes. Pour over the fish. Bake in a hot oven 20 minutes. Red perch is an inexpensive choice for this dish. The frozen fillets of fish may be used in this dish.

Sweet Potato Croquettes

This is the time of year to use sweet potatoes generously. These croquettes may be prepared in advance and then heated very quickly.

Three pounds sweet potatoes, marshmallows, melted butter, pepper and salt to taste, rolled bread or cracker crumbs.

Wash and boil sweet potatoes until tender, skin and mash. Season with salt and pepper and add a generous tablespoon of melted butter. Divide potato into small sections, press a whole marshmallow into each section and form into croquettes so that the marshmallow is entirely covered by the potato. Use a large tablespoon of potato for each.

Roll in cracker or dry cereal crumbs and warm through in a serving dish in a hot oven, when ready to use.

Spaghetti-Meat Casserole

One-half pound spaghetti, one can tomato soup, one medium-sized onion, one-half green pepper, three tablespoons butter, two or more cups meat remaining from roast pork, beef, lamb or veal may be used.

Cook the spaghetti in boiling, salted water. Chop the onion and green pepper and brown in the butter, cooking about five minutes.

The meat should be cut in small cubes. Drain the boiled spaghetti, and in a greased baking dish arrange alternate layers of spaghetti, the meat, and the onion mixture, repeating until the casserole is full. The top layer should be spaghetti.

Pour the entire can of tomato soup over the mixture. Dot with butter and bread crumbs and bake for 30 minutes. This is a tasty "one-dish" meal for a cold night.

HELPFUL HINTS FOR HOUSEWIVES

Scorch marks are particularly aggravating. They may be removed if they are rubbed immediately with dry starch and sponged off. If necessary repeat. Scorch stains on linen often respond to a vigorous scrubbing with a freshly-cut onion, the garment being soaked afterwards in cold water. Exposure to bright sunlight also helps.

To clean tinware, apply dry flour with a newspaper.

An ounce of coarse salt dropped in the trap of your sink will prevent the drainpipe from freezing.

All traces of mud may be removed from black clothing by rubbing the spot with a piece of raw potato. Grease spots may be taken out with weak ammonia; lay soft white paper over the spot and iron with a hot iron.

Temperature control is important when food has to be kept from day to day. This is particularly true of milk and meats. Forty degrees is ideal for milk and from 46 to 49 degrees is excellent for eggs, vegetables, fruits and so on. Any reading above 50 degrees may be dangerous for milk.

Socks Drying

Roll silk underwear and stockings in a heavy turkish towel to speed the drying process. If the garments are left in the towel a few minutes and then hung over the bars, they will dry very quickly. This method also absorbs the dampness and prevents the damaging tendency to twist the laundered garments.

A nightly rinsing in cold water will prolong the life of silk stockings, and they usually are ready for wear by morning.

Useful Kerosene

Heavy shoes that have been water-soaked will be comfortable for use again if rubbed thoroughly with kerosene. A generous application of vaseline also will soften shoes or boots that have dried out after a soaking. Smear on the vaseline and roll the shoes in a soft cloth.

Crumb Brush

A stiff wire brush is a great help in keeping the burners of a gas or an electric stove free from crumbs.

Crumbs slow up your stove, as well as give a disagreeable odor.

Rhymes to Wear

Children's designers are winning the gratitude of the youngsters these days. Small girls will gloat over the season's prints, for one clever stylist has made a series of prints out of favorite nursery rhymes and story books.

OKEYS GOSSIPING

NICE — (INS) — Talking is one of the most health-giving pastimes. A leading lung specialist here points out that many human ills result from weakness or deterioration of the lungs. Intensive talking, he declares, strengthens these delicate organs. As women are supposed to love gossiping, he suggests that this may explain why there are many more widows in the world than widowers—talking makes the women live longer.

BELGRADE — (INS) — A fortune was left behind by thieves who broke into a mill at Batchka Topola, Yugoslavia, on the night before pay day. The thieves removed one side of the office safe and stole a cash box containing $15. But they failed to discover a pile of $1,000 notes—worth about $50,000—which were lying beneath some account books in another part of the safe.

I have done a great deal of public speaking, on the floor of the Senate, over the radio and at conferences. Necessarily this results in a strain on the voice. A SHOWER OF GOLD for Our County's Beautiful Babies

(EDITOR'S NOTE:—"A SHOWER OF CASH" is a trade name for this feature. Cash will be awarded the winning babies.)

Cash Awards To Be Given The Community's Babies Will Provide The Foundation For Their Success In Life!

(These amounts will be given the parents of the winning babies at the conclusion of the election.)

A BUSINESS EDUCATION

COULD THERE BE ANYTHING MORE TIMELY—than to plan for the baby's education? Babies in arms today—boys and girls tomorrow—our future captains of industry and merchant princes. That is the hope and desire of every father and mother to have their child achieve success in life, whether in business or professionally, cannot be questioned. Right here and now a foundation can be laid for your baby's education, insure a training that will pay a practical and lasting dividend. Hiram N. Rasley, A. B., author of "Salaries in Business" in an interesting article in Cosmopolitan among other things said, "Give your boy or girl business training." Brief though that statement may seem, it is the answer that at least fits the needs of more than eighty per cent of the young men and women leaving high school and college, for it has been variously estimated that ultimately the livelihood of approximately that number is dependent upon some kind of business occupation.—AN EDUCATIONAL "NEST EGG" FOR YOUR BABY.

What is more appealing, more interest-compelling than a Baby? Everyone loves a baby. This paper will publish the photographs of scores of Beautiful Babies, and awards of lasting values will be given the winners.

The Voting Plan and the Rules

The Favorite Baby Election is restricted to The Communities' Babies who have not reached their fifth birthday today.

Children of the co-operating merchants, their employes and the employees of this newspaper are not eligible to compete. (This rule does not apply to our correspondents.)

The business concerns co-operating with The Bristol Courier in the Election will give vote coupons upon each fifty-cent cash purchase upon request at the time the purchase is made, or upon payment of account. Votes will be given upon the Entry Blank and free voting coupons that appear in this newspaper and upon payment of subscriptions. (See printed vote schedule). Votes are not transferable from one baby to another baby and in the event an entrant is withdrawn from the Election, the votes cast for it will be cancelled. In the event a tie occurs, prizes of equal value will be given the babies polling the tie votes. Votes positively cannot be purchased; any collusion to nullify competition to the detriment of this newspaper, the co-operating merchants and the other candidates subject these entrants to disqualification. Cash must accompany all subscriptions where votes are credited.

An additional payment upon a subscription turned in previously during the Election will be recognized for votes under the period the original payment was made. The Favorite Baby Election begins today, and will end Saturday night, April 24, 1937. The right is reserved to reject any entry without giving the reason therefore. Right is reserved to add to the list of awards or to give extra prizes or extra votes. A committee of representative citizens will make the awards at the conclusion of the Election. All awards are final and all persons participating (parents and nominators) agree to abide by the Awarding Committee's findings. "Second-payment" subscriptions must be plainly designated as such according to instructions in order to obtain proper credit for votes. All matter pertaining to the Election printed elsewhere in this issue is hereby made part of the rules and conditions governing it. This newspaper reserves the right to correct mistakes or typographical errors that may occur or to make any additions to the rules that may be deemed necessary to the welfare of the participants, the merchants and this newspaper.

Highlights of the "Favorite Baby" Election

One Thousand Dollars in cash awards and commissions and a huge loving cup thirty-two and one-half inches high, suitably engraved for the memorable occasion, are the rewards. The election is for Communities' babies only. The child must be under five years of age. The election is not a drawing. Each child entered will have an equal opportunity to be selected the Favorite Baby, thereby winning this distinctive honor that time will not dim; also, the huge loving cup and the $500.00 cash award.

THE BABY IS KING

A rose-curtained cradle, where nestled within Soft cambric and flannel, lies pounds seventeen,
Is the throne of a tyrant; that pink little thing
Is an autocrat ruler, for baby is king.

Good, solemn, grandfather dares hardly speak
Or walk, lest sleeper should hear his boots creak,
Grandma is a martyr in muslins and cap
Which the monarch unsettles, as well as her nap.

Papa wise and mighty, just home from "the house"
Grows meek at the threshold and moves like a mouse,
To stare at the bundle, then outward he goes,
Like an elephant, trying to walk on his toes.

Good aunts and cousins before him bow low,
Though he rumples the ringlets, twists collars and bow,
He bids the nurse walk with his majesty's self,
And he cries when she stops, like a merciless elf.

He swings right and left his saucy, fat fist
And then the next moment expects to be kissed;
He demands people's watches to batter about,
And meets a refusal with a struggle and shout.

Then failing to conquer, with passionate cry
He quivers his lips, keeps a tear in his eye;
And so wins the battle, the wise little thing
He knows, the world over, that baby is king!

To the Merchants and Public

We have studied the details of the Favorite Baby Election from every angle and we have concluded that no better offer could be made to promote closer business relationship between the residents of this Community, the merchants and this newspaper. We feel that in selecting the Favorite Baby of this community by this plan, better business, more business and lasting good will and acquaintanceship among the citizens is certain to result.

The Election headquarters of The Bristol Courier is at the disposal of our merchants and the public and any information desired relative to the Election can be had by telephoning 3122.

A SPECIAL INVITATION IS EXTENDED ADDITIONAL MERCHANTS TO TAKE PART IN THIS INTERESTING FEATURE AND ISSUE "BABY VOTES" IN THE ELECTION. GET IN TOUCH WITH "THE FAVORITE BABY" ELECTION EDITOR, OR PHONE 3122 FOR PARTICULARS.

This Is Your Baby's Golden Opportunity

You Want To See Your Community Grow

Then plant the seeds of prosperity and contentment in your community by trading with your merchants at home and you will have a prosperous and healthy business community. Remember that every dollar you spend at home with your home merchants continues to serve you in various ways long after your purchase is made and forgotten. Your community will prosper and expand in direct proportion to the consideration the good citizens give their neighbor's interests. Acquaint yourself with the offerings of your home town business houses. They are established for one purpose—to SERVE you. If you are not familiar with their exceptional merchandise and their attractive prices, there will never be a better opportunity to get acquainted with these progressive concerns. Did you ever stop to think what becomes of the dollar you spend (or send) outside of your own community? THINK. You owe it to yourself and to your neighbors to give your home town merchants first consideration when you spend a dollar.

In selecting the FAVORITE BABY, the novel and fascinating plan is in itself an appeal that will create more cash business for the community through this liberal cash offer to its citizens and unless The Bristol Courier offer helps the community, its merchants and the beautiful babies in a substantial way, it will have failed in its purpose.

COMPLETE PLANS FOR SEMI-PROS FOR SEASON

NEW YORK, Feb. 18.—(INS)—Honus Wagner, commissioner of semi-pro baseball, announced today that plans for the international semi-pro baseball series in 1938 to be contested by the United States, Canada, Mexico and Cuba have definitely been completed.

The winner of the Mexico national tournament will engage the Cuban champion in a seven-game series early in September. A similar series will take place between the United States champion and the winner of the Canadian tournament.

The two victorious clubs, starting September 20, will engage in a post-series to decide the international championship.

National tournaments are being sanctioned this year in each of the four countries, Wagner said.

The Mexican meet at Mexico City is under the direction of Commissioner L. Ochoa, Wagner said, and will be an invitation affair.

At Montreal, Louis Duchesnay will stage the Canadian tournament in July. Next year each province will have its own elimination tourney with only winners eligible in the final Canadian finals.

The Cuban tournament is to take place at Havana this year. Oscar Sanchez is the commissioner of Cuba.

In the United States the national finals will be staged at Wichita, Kan., with a minimum guarantee to the winner of $5,000. Forty-eight state tournaments are being established by President Raymond Dumont of the Congress, Wagner said, with winners, state champions, eligible to compete in the finals.

In many of the states, California, Illinois, Indiana, district tourneys are being established with winners, district champions, eligible for the state finals.

When the program of the National Semi-Pro Baseball Congress is completed in 1940 in the United States, Wagner said, there will be 768 district tourneys, preceding the state events.

Details of the international series will be announced following the meeting of state commissioners at Chicago, February 7, Wagner said.

MACK HAS HIGH HOPES OF MOULDERING WINNING TEAM

By G. Weart
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)
PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 18.—(INS)—Four years beyond three score and 10, the allotted span for mortal man, and still Connie Mack today looks ahead and not behind.

Once more, the tall, stately patriarch of the game has high hopes of moulding another "world-championship-winning baseball" club by in 34 long years playing the game and managing the A's he has never faced a more difficult task.

Yet, Connie has implicit faith in the future and a firm belief in his ability to build another winner. "They said we couldn't do it before, but we did," the aged baseball magnate observed.

"Yes, it is true, we have a young club. But they're good ball players and I'm hoping we'll make a good showing. I wouldn't attempt to say where we'll end the season, but we are going to aim at the pennant."

Confessing to lying awake nights thinking how to get a real team together, Mack said his greatest problem "is to develop a pitching staff, because pitching is 75 per cent of the battle. We have some mighty promising young fellows coming with us and I think they have what it takes."

It is these young players that are Connie's favorite topic and on whom he bases his hopes for the future.

"A lot of them develop into stars over the winter," he asserted. "I claim no one can predict what these young players will do after they get a season in the big time under their belts. We are going to have an interesting club this year if youth, color and personality count at all."

With these young fellows — the White Elephants of 1937 — Connie hopes to go places in '38. So this year the A's will play a running game, take chances and steal every base possible. This may not work so well this season, but Commander Mack sees baseball reverting to the old-style of base stealing plus the hit-and-run play in 1938, when the deadened ball will be in use.

The deadened sphere will eliminate many home runs and will increase the need of playing for one run. So when the running game does return, Connie Mack will have the jump on the other managers. Added to the advantage of youth, his team in '38 will be one year ahead of their opponents when it comes to running the cushions.

"When the ball isn't so lively," Connie observed, "there won't be so many trying to knock it out of the park. We'll have plenty of base running and our club has a number of fast men. Naturally, I'll let them run. We won't wait until 1938, we'll play that style of baseball this coming season."

PITTSBURGH (INS)—"Mister, can you give me a nickel for a cup of coffee?" Arrested for begging, George Winiski, 56, was found to have $254 in his pocket and another $11.813 on deposit in a bank. The judge fined him $10.

ODDS AND ENDS IN SPORT NEWS OF WORLD

NEW YORK, Feb. 18.—(INS)—The report is out that Lee Ramage is being readied for another bout with Joe Louis, which probably will make it three strikes and out for Ramage. Joe knocked him out twice before. Young Horace Stoneham bought himself a lot of good will with the contracts he offered his Giants.

The New York club owner gave all the boys such substantial raises that scarcely a squawk was heard. And that is a real accomplishment. Look at the Yankees and those harangues with Col. Jake Ruppert.

Walter Berger, Phil Cavaretta, Al Hollingsworth, Sam Byrd, Hank Leiber, Pinky Whitner, Johnny Mize, Pepper Martin and Tipper Collins all belted homers with the sacks loaded last season, the National League's Green Book reveals. It also reminds the reader that Van Mungo of the Dodgers turned in one pitching performance accomplished only three times in the history of the league.

He fanned seven straight batters in a game with the Reds. His 238 strikeouts for the season broke Dizzy Dean's four-year reign as strikeout king. . . . Diz, however, was runner-up.

On the basis of opponents' batting average compiled against the various pitchers, Munzo was tops for the year. . . . Carl Hubbell was first in earned runs and in winning percentage, however, and did a few other things in pitching the Giants to the pennant.

A sell-out crowd is expected at the Hippodrome for February 24, when Gunnar Barlund, the heavyweight Finn, and Nathan Mann tangle up. . . . Barlund is unwhipped on these shores and Mann turned in his most impressive victory on the Pastor-Louis card in belting out Terry Mitchell in a punch.

BELVILLE, Cape Province — (INS)

A crooning dog is the proud possession of W. G. Walter, a local motor mechanic. When Mr. Walter plays the accordion the dog joins in the chorus. Its "crooning" consists of a kind of howl, the note of which it attempts to raise or lower with the music.
